Blaire brings 35 years of starting and acquiring successful operations in global finance/accounting, alternative energy and executive recruiting. She is an accomplished executive and entrepreneur with a history of identifying and capitalizing on new opportunities to expand business and drive revenue and profit growth. Prior to investing in The Hunter Group as a partner-co-owner in 2013, she held diverse executive leadership positions with top global finance/accounting, automotive, and alternative energy organizations. In her various executive/founder roles, she built and acquired high performing teams for her own organization as well as for her diverse clients through her extensive network and industry knowledge.

The Hunter Group LLC, the Midwest's Premier Executive National Search Firm and a Forbes Top 100 Retained Executive Search Firm, was established in 1995 to serve the executive search needs of clients across a wide range of industries and sectors. The firm is committed to identifying and attracting high caliber leadership and managerial expertise for its global client base through its international delivery network, Panorama Partners, and best practices as a member of the exclusive Association of Executive Search Consultants, whose members are the leading global retained executive search firms.

Blaire is a longstanding member of and speaker with Inforum, serving on several committees over the years. She also currently serves in leadership positions on several business boards and associations including Financial Executives International, Women Presidents Organization, British-American Business Council, Vistage Michigan among others. In addition, Blaire serves as a guest lecturer at MSU's Eli Broad College of Business and the University of Michigan Ross School of Business.

She earned her BBA from Eastern Michigan University as a Regents Scholarship Recipient, Cum Laude and MBA from Michigan State University, Summa Cum Laude with additional international studies at the Wiener Universitaet in Austria, the Fachhochschule Nuertingen in Germany, and in Belgrade, Serbia with AFS. She is also an AFP Certified Cash Manager (CCM).

Blaire has one grown daughter and enjoys ballroom/latin dancing and playing violin in addition to volunteering with local high impact non-profits.
