

Michelle L. Hall is currently Vice President, Corporate HR and Compensation at Meijer. Meijer is a multi-billion dollar retailer with more than 65,000 employees across six states. In this role, Michelle leads the delivery of Human Resource initiatives for the corporate office, which is comprised of over 2,000 team members as well as responsibility for company-wide compensation programs. Most recently, Michelle also assumed oversight of the HR function at Fresh Thyme Farmers Market in Downers Grove, IL.

Prior to joining Meijer in 2014, Michelle held Compensation responsibilities at Eastman Chemical Company in northeast Tennessee, as well as various HR roles with The Dow Chemical Company including Talent Management, Talent Acquisition, Compensation, and progressively greater HR business partner positions.

Michelle holds a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration from Central Michigan University. She has participated on the West Michigan Regional Council for Inforum since 2017. Michelle volunteers as a Sunday School teacher at Trinity Lutheran Church in Grand Rapids, MI, Girls on the Run coach for Valley View Elementary School and Boys' Youth Lacrosse coach in Rockford, MI. She enjoys being active by traveling, running, hiking, participating in triathlons, and spending time outdoors with her family.