

Amy Vandecar
Vice President of System Contracting and Value Based Reimbursement
Henry Ford Health System

Amy has over 20 years of health care experience. She started her career as an auditor at Ernst & Young. After a few years she was recruited to Providence Hospital, which merged with St. John Health, as the Manager of Payor Contracting. Since 2003 Amy has led the Henry Ford Health System payor contracting team and in 2018 was promoted to Vice President of System Contracting and Value Based Reimbursement.

Over the years Amy has gained extensive experience; negotiating contracts with local and national HMOs and PPOs, Medicaid and Medicare Advantage plans, CMS Next Generation ACO, capitation and shared risk models, direct to employer arrangements, strategy development and value based arrangements.
